

La Colline Villa Customer Review

La Colline Villa

My extended family and I had a wonderful week in this charming house. The owners greeted us with local gifts of brioche and wine and were attentive to our needs. Built into a rock, the house is filled with antiques yet has a modern kitchen and bathrooms. The bedrooms are large and airy and the outdoor space is lovely. The pool is on the small side and is in partial shade, but was fine for my family of 6.

Only Provence was responsive to our questions and provided the opportunity for the best experience we have had in years—a cooking lesson and dinner by Chef Ronald Guillaume. The lesson/dinner with Chef Ronald was the best experience of our 3-country, 2 1/2 week trip! Although it seems like a lot of money initially, it was worth every penny and is something we will never forget. What ever you do, don't miss it!
